My dear Florida

I sent you a very short-note to ask you to come and spend a fortnight - with me in Baltimore, and to come Monday or the first of the coming week - Next week will be at home from College for Christmas - and we will all be glad to have you - I promise nothing in the way of amusement for we live very quietly but - you will see plenty of good southern people - no body thinks of parties here we all have sons in the late battle and their fate is unknown - but we visit - a good deal - I will introduce you to many who feel with us - My house is small but - I have one spare room and Virginia will have her friends in succession I have rented the furnished house of a Georgia friend who lived here with her daughter, a lady of wealth and old family - ruined by the Yankee Army South - Next - year I will have a winter

house in town of my own large and handsome now I have a small but very nice house -
you need no escort for if you write in time I will meet you -
at the Car - My house is No 122 - Catharine St - opposite Eager St -

I am so happy in our late victory -
best - love to your mother and be sure to come to me - I shall want
another visit - from you later in the season too -

Write me saying
when I must meet you Yours truly affe<sup>d</sup>
C. W. Sabine
